Caroline Dare is a new, up and coming singer/songwriter. Just 12 years old, she has written and composed numerous original songs with many receiving internet radio airplay. "Game On" and its video have been featured on The Fox Soccer Channel. She has been interviewed and featured on radio stations based out of New York City and Nashville. Caroline also plays a host of covers songs from artists such as Miranda Lambert, Taylor Swift, and Carrie Underwood.

Caroline started playing the guitar in April 2012. In the spring, summer, and fall of 2013 she will be playing in numerous festivals and events in NC. This summer and fall she will also get back into the studio with veteran award winning producer Blake Scott. Scott says " it's simply amazing the talent this young girl brings to the table, not only singing and playing guitar, but writing her own material. She gets very little arrangement of her songs from me, they are already put together very well when she presents them." Expect to hear big things from this young talent in the future
