

Christmas Eve with You

Words and Music by Mike Hyden

Copyright 1990 Mike Hyden

I cannot remember exactly what year I wrote this song... sometime in the early 80's.

It was written in celebration of the spirit of Christmas with family.

I finally had it recorded November, 2008.

Hope you enjoy!

The children, they're asleep, they'll dream away the night we'll wake to hear their feet along the dawn's first light they'll beg us out of bed to hurry up to see what Santa Claus has left around the Christmas tree

CHORUS:

And now we've found the time that we can truly call our own want you to know that I'm so pleased we can spend it all alone you've made my life, girl, so complete I have to make it known there's nothing else I'd rather do than spend Christmas eve with you

And now it's almost time to close another year verses of auld lang syne, we'll cap it with a cheer the days they go so slow, the years they fly on by but time stands still it seems, when you're here by my side

(Repeat Chorus)

And soon the children grown, we'll watch them move away a family of their own to celebrate the day we'll reminisce of how we spent each Christmas past but still hold on to now as if it was our last

(Repeat Chorus)
